Though there is provision for the payment of such allowances, still individual sanction is necessary for making such payments and the Amildar President ought to have obtained it before payment. As however, the allowances have been paid for the prompt work done by the Doctor to stop the spread of epidemic at Hoskote Town, I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained to ratify the action taken by the Municipal Council in making the payment Strict instructions have been issued to the Presidents of all the Municipalities not to incur expenditure of the kind without specific Sanction in future
